DID YOU KNOW THAT...

Specialised employment websites unite job offers from a specific profession or sector. They are a useful tool both for companies, who need to recruit increasingly specialised talent, and for job searchers, who want to find offers more focused on their areas of interest. These websites usually have a reduced number of jobs on offer, but they are more aligned with your professional profile and you will find less competition.

REMEMBER!

You will also find specific offers in general employment websites filtering by keyword, such as “biotechnology”, “biomedicine”, “pharmaceutical”, “health”, “social-health” and others related to your occupation.

FOCUSING

In 2020, it was recorded that over 1,300 companies and 91 organisations dedicated to research in Life and Health Sciences in Catalonia. This sector had a turnover of 87.7 million euros (8.7% of the national GDP) and employs 244,000 people, over 8% of the working population.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

Self-applying to a company before they post a job offer is a good way to anticipate their demand for personnel and show interest in joining their team. For your self-application to succeed, you will need to send a cover letter alongside your CV and follow up on your application. Immediate results are not guaranteed, but you might be selected for unpublished offers and reduce competition to a minimum.

REMEMBER!

Work teams in this sector are increasingly multidisciplinary, and they include science, health and social-health professionals. For this reason, organisations equally value technical expertise and the ability to collaborate with other professionals.

FOCUSING

The Barcelona metropolitan area integrates 98% of this sector in Catalonia: over 50 actors -including support centres, science parks, research centres and others- make up a European hub of Life and Health Sciences.
