DID YOU KNOW THAT...

Specialised employment websites unite job offers from a specific profession or sector. They are a useful tool both for companies, who need to recruit increasingly specialised talent, and for job searchers who want to find offers more focused on their areas of interest. These websites usually have a reduced number of jobs on offer, but they are more aligned with your professional profile and you will find less competition.

REMEMBER!

Adapt your CV to the sector's terminology. Add finished projects, tasks and milestones, volumes managed, turnovers and other data that allows your experience to be put into value.

FOCUSING

The logistics sector is key in Catalonia: in 2020 it contributed with 14% of GDP and employed about 128,000 people in the Barcelona area alone.

01. Specialised employment websites

ADL Logística

<https://www.adl-logistica.org/bolsa-de-empleo/>

Website of a private organisation dedicated to training, research and connection between professionals and companies from the logistics sector. It has a public career site.

Diario Azafata

<https://www.diarioazafata.com/>

Employment website that displays job vacancies and recommendations. They publish the recruitment calendar of the main airlines for cabin crew members.

Institute for Careers and Innovation in Logistics & Supply Chain - ICIL

<https://icil.org/>

Spanish organisation dedicated to research, training, divulgation and company applications in this sector. It has a career site available for the foundation's members and students.

Jobtransport

<https://www.jobtransport.com/emploi.aspx>

International (mostly French) employment website specialised in mobility, specifically in the logistics distribution stages.

Logytalent

<https://logytalent.com/>

TDR Jobs

<https://www.tdrjobs.com/>

Employment website dedicated to mobility, specifically to road freight and driver positions.

Trabajo Aviación

<https://trabajoaviacion.es/>

Employment website specialised in aeronautics, specifically dedicated to aviation-related job offers.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

These companies aim to select a candidate to cover for a specific role for the customer company. Therefore, temporary recruitment agencies, head-hunters and service companies become a key channel to access certain offers and companies in the sector. Besides, they manage several job offers at the same time, so by applying through these companies you will have access to offers from different clients.

REMEMBER!

There is a growing number of intermediary companies intervening in this sector, especially in the stages of storage (Logistics) and those connected with distribution (Mobility).

FOCUSING

The most in-demand professional profiles are: logistics engineering technicians, smart mobility engineers and cabin crew members.

02. Recruitment and intermediary companies

Synergie Aero

<https://www.synergie.es/especializaciones/synergie-aero/>

Specialised area of Synergie España dedicated to recruiting and hiring profiles related to the aeronautics industry.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

Self-applying to a company before they post a job offer is a good way to anticipate their demand for personnel and show interest in joining their team.

For your self-application to succeed, you will need to send a cover letter alongside your CV and follow up on your application. Immediate results are not guaranteed, but you might be selected for unpublished offers and reduce competition to a minimum.

REMEMBER!

Large companies in this sector usually have a career site on their websites and/or a contact form for candidates to send their CVs. Search results may be filtered according to your area of interest.

FOCUSING

The main areas of logistics activities in the Barcelona metropolitan area are El Prat Airport, Zona Franca, Port de Barcelona and Eix Besòs.
